CHELSEY'S CORNER

Hello.

Sadly, this weekend was my last race of the 2007 season. I already miss it and cant wait to begin testing for 2008. My last race was quite exciting.

The weather wasn't really cooperating but I love the rain, qualifying 5th in both Honda and Rotax! My Honda prefinal was quite a miracle, I had engine troubles and we couldn't figure out what was wrong. Even with low horsepower, other people spun out and I found myself crossing the line in 2nd place.

Suddenly in my final race of Honda, maybe for the rest of my career, the engine worked perfectly. After a strong start, and a long battle to fend off fourth place, I finished 3rd! Rotax was quite the different story. The start of the prefinal was horrible, as I got spun and then ran into. Thankfully there was a restart, I grabbed third place of the start and held it the entire 12 laps. Another great start put me into 2nd place on the first lap of the final. I overdrove a corner and three karts passed me. I kept my head down and got past one of them quickly, leaving two more. I passed third place, only to get passed back. It was the last lap coming to the checkered and I was going all out. My kart got loose coming out of the last turn as I was trying for third place, the curb sucked me in and I smashed into the tire wall. No worries, I bruised my ribs, but everything's alright. The 2007 season definately ended with a bang. I ended up 4th in Honda Championship and 6th in Rotax Championship.

Thanks to Everyone

Angel On Highway 109

By Ruth Gillis

A drunk man in an Oldsmobile
They said had run the light
That caused the six-car pileup
On 109 that night.

When broken bodies lay about
And blood was everywhere,
The sirens screamed out elegies,
For death was in the air.

A mother, trapped inside her car,
Was heard above the noise;
Her plaintive plea near split the air:
"Oh, God, please spare my boys!"

She fought to loose her pinioned
hands;
She struggled to get free,
But mangled metal held her fast
In grim captivity.

Her frightened eyes then focused
On where the back seat once had been,
But all she saw was broken glass and
Two children's seats crushed in.

Her twins were nowhere to be seen;
She did not hear them cry,
And then she prayed they'd been thrown free,
"Oh, God, don't let them die!"

Then firemen came and cut her
loose,
But when they searched the back,
They found therein no little boys,
But the seat belts were intact.

They thought the woman had gone
mad
And was traveling alone,
But when they turned to question
her,
They discovered she was gone.

Policemen saw her running wild
And screaming above the noise
In beseeching supplication,
"Please help me find my boys!"

They're four years old and wear blue shirts;
Their jeans are blue to match."
One cop spoke up, "They're in my car,
And they don't have a scratch.

They said their daddy put them
there
And gave them each a cone,
Then told them both to wait for
Mom
To come and take them home.

I've searched the area high and low,
But I can't find their dad.
He must have fled the scene,
I guess, and that is very bad."

The mother hugged the twins and
said,
While wiping at a tear,
"He could not flee the scene, you
see,
For he's been dead a year."

The cop just looked confused and asked,
"Now, how can that be true?"
The boys said, "Mommy, Daddy came
And left a kiss for you.

He told us not to worry
And that you would be all right,
And then he put us in this car with
The pretty, flashing light.

We wanted him to stay with us,
Because we miss him so,
But Mommy, he just hugged us tight
And said he had to go.

He said someday we'd understand
And told us not to fuss,
And he said to tell you, Mommy,
He's watching over us."

The mother knew without a doubt
That what they spoke was true,
For she recalled their dad's last words,
"I will watch over you."

The firemen's notes could not explain
The twisted, mangled car,
And how the three of them escaped
Without a single scar.

But on the cop's report was scribed,
In print so very fine,
An angel walked the beat tonight
On Highway 109.

A Tribute To Down East Music

Submitted by Jennifer Cormier

Are you a displaced Maritimer? Do you have a love of the music of the Maritime provinces and fiddle music in your soul?

Wednesday, October 17th at 7:30pm, The Bert Church Theatre will present A Tribute to Down East Music with Randy Jones and the Reflections. This 4 piece band of experienced musicians, along with a few special guests, will leave you with a smile on your face and whistling good time fiddle tunes.

The band is comprised of Randy Jones on fiddle, Ken Murdoch on piano, Doug Norman on drums, and Jerry Litz on bass. These four musicians have known each other for many years and finally decided the time was right to form their own ensemble. Randy Jones and the Reflections develop quite a following wherever they perform. They have a passion for promoting young musicians and have had a number of young entertainers perform with them over the years. Recently, the Keister Family Fiddlers joined forces with the band. This talented group of 4 young sisters is a joy to watch as their proficient fiddling skills and joy of music shine through in every performance.

The audience will be whisked into a maritime house party during this 2 hour concert. The band and their special guests will acknowledge fiddle music and composers from the Atlantic provinces and Newfoundland with pieces from Don Messer, Ivan Hicks, Ned Landry, and Nathalie McMaster to name just a few. Randy Jones will keep the audience entertained between pieces with stories and more. Keep your eyes open for a dancing fisherman and other entertaining diversions as well!

Gather a group for Wednesday, October 17 at 7:30pm; you will not be disappointed. Tickets for this show are $18 for Adults ($14 for members) and $16 for Students and Seniors ($12 for members) and may be purchased at our local ticket outlets. These include Music Center Canada, Page and Turner's Bookstore, Air-Alta Insurance, and the Rockyview IDA in Crossfield. For more information, please contact The Bert Church Theatre at 948-2153 or visit the theatre's website at www.thebertchurchtheatre.com
